

Professional Development: Advanced Suturing

At end 1 class

Class Offered: December , , and ,
Time: : - : AM or : - : PM

Location: USA Health Simulation Building
USA Dr. N., Room *
Mobile, AL

Cost: $

Target audience: Nurse Practitioners, Physician Assistants, Physicians, and other Healthcare Workers who perform suturing and have basic suturing knowledge

Purpose: Demonstrate safe, competent, and independent performance of the following skills: laceration repair with simple interrupted suture, incision and drainage, running suture, horizontal mattress stitch, vertical mattress stitch, acute corner closure, nail hematoma release, and partial nail removal.

Benefits: Strengthen your suturing skills and learn new suturing techniques.

A Certificate of Completion will be awarded at the completion of the class and submission of an evaluation. [ABNP expires - - ]

Instructor: USA Simulation Faculty/Staff

Contact for questions: Eleanor Odom, MSN, RN, CNL
eleanorodom@southalabama.edu